The steps forward that THE SUN To bacco Fund took last week, and is amhitleus to keep on taking this week, are as if made by the seven league boots. These long strides have been made possihis by the several big parties like those at the Waldorf-Astoria and the Martinique hotels and by the numerous block parties held throughous Greater New And by the many individual donors, too, for these never must be for-block parties it is as well to say here that while many have been given for the fund and accepted by it, many have been refused. THE SUN Tobacco Fund early in the epidemic of block parties made rule that it would not accept the offer of one unless the majority of the residents of any block making the offer wanted the affair. It insisted on these persons writing in their wishes. Thus it seemed s if the idea of voluntary contributions meat on which the tobacco fund has red and grown so great, would be con

IS NEAR TO DEATH

Prelate's Recovery Seems Almost Hopeless as Heart Fails Steadily.

PRAYERS IN THE SCHOOLS

Special Services Ordered in All Churches of the Archdiocese.

All but the last vestige of hope that Cardinal Farley could raily from the heart weakness which he suffered Sunday had been abandoned last night by the physicians attending him at his summer home, Orienta Point, Mamaroheck As the day and night wore on and the Cardinal's condition, instead of growing better gave indications that he was continually losing strength, it was was continually losing strength, it was plain the priests and others of his household entertained but little hope household entertained but little hope that even his wonderful powers of resistance could overcome the effects of the relapse.

Cardinal Farley apparently realized that he is dying. Just before one of the sinking spells which he suffered yea-terday he whispered weakly a desire to be removed to his home in this city. Last night he was unable to speak.

Mgr. Carroll, the Cardinal's secre-tary, plainly was deeply concerned over the prelate's grave condition. "Car-dinal Farley's recovery now seems al-most hopeless," Mgr. Carroll said. "His heart has about failed him. It has been
